

Media Contact:

Sarah Miller
Pierpont Communications
(713) 627-2223
smiller@piercom.com

2011 Chambers USA Ranks Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Atlanta-Based Attorneys High in Tax Category

Law Firm Ranked at Local and National Levels

ATLANTA – (June 15, 2011) – National law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that two lawyers from the firm's Atlanta office have been recognized as national leaders in the tax law practice area in the 2011 edition of Chambers USA. Chamberlain has also achieved firm and individual rankings on both the local and national levels. Determined by input from clients and peers, the publication has ranked Chamberlain No. 1 in tax law in Georgia and No. 3 nationally in tax controversy.

"Our Atlanta office has grown significantly in recent years," said Wayne Risoli, Managing Shareholder, Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "Our national and local rankings in the area of tax are a testament to this growth. We congratulate our attorneys on their achievements."

Published by Chamber and Partners, Chambers USA compiles an annual list of the top attorneys in the U.S. according to practice area. Designed as a comprehensive guide for clients, the publication identifies and ranks leading attorneys based on thousands of interviews conducted by researchers with clients and lawyers worldwide.

"Over the years these lawyers have done a superb job of handling the most high-profile controversy work in town," Chambers interviewees were quoted as saying during the interview process.

The following attorneys from Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Atlanta office were included in the 2011 rankings in the areas of tax law:

- David D. Aughtry (Tax Georgia – Star Individuals; Tax: Controversy Nationwide – Ranked 2)
- Hale E. Sheppard (Tax Georgia – Ranked 3)

Alongside Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Atlanta-based attorneys, five other attorneys from the firm's Houston and Philadelphia offices have also been recognized as leaders in the areas of immigration and tax law.

About Chamberlain Hrdlicka

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is a diversified business law firm with offices in Houston, San Antonio, Atlanta, Philadelphia and Denver. The firm represents both public and private companies as well as individuals and family-owned businesses across the nation. In addition to tax planning and tax controversy, the firm offers corporate, securities and finance, employment law and employee benefits, energy law, estate planning and administration, intellectual property, international and immigration law, commercial and business litigation, real estate and construction law.

###