Chamberlain Hrdlicka Ranked Nationally in 2011 Chambers USA

Seven Attorneys Ranked in Tax & Immigration Categories

HOUSTON – (June 15, 2011) – National law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that it has achieved firm and individual rankings on both the state and national levels in the 2011 edition of Chambers USA. Determined by input from clients and peers, the publication has ranked Chamberlain No. 1 in tax law in Georgia, No. 3 nationally in tax controversy and No. 4 in tax law in Texas. Additionally, seven attorneys from the firm's Houston, Atlanta and Philadelphia offices have been recognized in the areas of tax and immigration law.

Chambers interviewees describe Chamberlain as, “trusted advisers with real technical expertise” and “a blockbuster team with an excellent tax controversy practice.”

Published by Chamber and Partners, Chambers USA compiles an annual list of the top attorneys in the U.S. according to practice area. Designed as a comprehensive guide for clients, the publication identifies and ranks leading attorneys based on thousands of interviews conducted by researchers with clients and lawyers worldwide.

“To be again ranked within this prestigious group is an honor for our firm and for each of the individuals recognized,” said Wayne Risoli, Managing Shareholder, Chamberlain Hrdlicka.

The following attorneys are included in this year's rankings:

National Recognition

- Larry Campagna (Tax: Fraud - Ranked 1)
- David Aughtry (Tax: Controversy - Ranked 2)
- Philip Karter (Tax: Controversy - Ranked 2)
- Herbert Odell (Tax: Controversy - Ranked 3)
- Juan Vasquez Jr. (Tax: Controversy - Ranked 4)

Texas Recognition

- Larry Campagna (Tax: Litigation - Ranked 1)
- Peter Williamson (Immigration - Ranked 2)

Georgia Recognition

- David Aughtry (Tax - Star Individuals)
- Hale Sheppard (Tax - Band 3)
