Chamberlain Hrdlicka Expands Estate Planning Practice in Philadelphia

Leading Trusts and Estates Attorney Joins Philadelphia Office of National Law Firm

PHILADELPHIA (April 18, 2012) – National law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka announced today the hire of leading trusts and estates attorney David S. Kovsky, who will advise individuals and families on the full spectrum of estate planning law. Joining the Philadelphia office as senior counsel, Kovsky will expand the firm’s growing estate planning practice into the Philadelphia market.

“We are very pleased to welcome David to our Philadelphia office,” said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder, Chamberlain Hrdlicka. “He brings with him extensive experience in the estate planning space, which will allow us to offer these services in the Philadelphia market, an area where in the past we have traditionally focused only on tax.”

Formerly an associate with Philadelphia-based law firm Cozen O’Connor, Kovsky’s practice focuses on the entire cycle of estate planning. At Chamberlain Hrdlicka, he will counsel high-net-worth clients on complex estate planning matters, including wills, trusts, living wills, powers of attorney, closely held businesses (partnerships, limited liability companies, S-corps), tax-exempt organizations, and estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax planning.

Kovsky earned his Master of Laws (Taxation) from Temple University’s James E. Beasley School of Law, where he also earned a Certificate in Estate Planning. He earned his law degree from Tulane University in New Orleans, as well as his undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan. Kovsky currently serves as a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Philadelphia Bar Association (Probate Section) and the Philadelphia Estate Planning Council.
