Chamberlain Hrdlicka Maintains Top Rankings in Chambers USA

Practice Areas and Attorneys Win High Marks in Tax and Immigration Categories

HOUSTON (May 29, 2013) – National law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka and its attorneys have once again been recognized in multiple practice areas by Chambers USA in its 2013 ranking of law firms and lawyers across the country, achieving top-tier rankings in multiple tax categories.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka maintained its No. 1 ranking in Tax law in Georgia, as well as its ranking in Tax Controversy nationally (No. 3) and Tax law in Texas (No. 4). Eight attorneys from the firm's Houston, Atlanta and Philadelphia offices were also recognized in the areas of tax and immigration, including David Aughtry, who, for the second year in a row, was named a "Star" individual – Chambers' top honor.

"We are very proud to see our attorneys honored for their outstanding contributions to the legal community," said Wayne Risoli, managing partner, Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "Chambers is widely a respected benchmark of the high standards in the legal community as well as a strong testament to the exemplary principles we set for our attorneys in terms of professional success."

Published by Chamber and Partners, Chambers USA compiles an annual list of the nation's top attorneys according to practice area. The directory identifies and ranks leading firms and attorneys based on interviews conducted by researchers with clients and lawyers worldwide.

This year's rankings included the following attorneys:

Nationwide

- David D. Aughtry (Tax Controversy – Band 2)
- Larry A. Campagna (Tax Fraud – Band 1)
- Philip Karter (Tax Controversy – Band 2)
- Herbert Odell (Tax Controversy – Band 3)
- Juan F. Vasquez Jr. (Tax Controversy – Band 4)

Georgia

- David D. Aughtry (Tax – Star Individual)
- Hale E. Sheppard (Tax – Band 3)

Texas

- Larry A. Campagna (Tax Litigation – Band 1)
- Brian Kilmer (Bankruptcy/Restructuring – Band 4)

- Peter D. Williamson (Immigration – Band 2)
