john.meredith@chamberlainlaw.comFOUR CHAMBERLAIN HRDLICKA LAWYERS NAMED AMONG 2021 PENNSYLVANIA SUPER LAWYERS, RISING STARS

PHILADELPHIA, May 26, 2021 – Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that four of its Philadelphia-based attorneys have been named to the 2021 "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" list. Shareholders Philip Karter, Kenneth I. Trujillo and Stewart M. Weintraub were selected as "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" and Shareholder Jennifer W. Karpchuk was selected as a "Pennsylvania Rising Star" by the publication. The complete list of honorees is available today and can be found here.

No more than 5% of all attorneys across the Commonwealth throughout 70 practice areas are selected for inclusion in the "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" list. The annual selections are made using a patented multiphase process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area.

Philip Karter

Karter focuses his practice on tax controversy and tax litigation matters encompassing a wide variety of complex and high-profile tax matters, a number of which have involved issues of first impression. He has litigated Federal tax cases in the United States District Courts, the United States Tax Court and the United States Court of Federal Claims, and he has argued in the United States Court of Appeals in multiple circuits. Karter formerly served as a trial attorney at the U.S. Department of Justice. He earned his undergraduate degree from Emory University, his law degree from the University of Wisconsin School of Law and his Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. This is the first year he has been selected for inclusion in the "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" list.

Kenneth Trujillo

Trujillo represents U.S. and foreign corporations, as well as government entities, executives, lawyers and other individuals with a focus on contract disputes, securities, antitrust, education and other regulatory issues. His practice involves complex civil litigation and class actions, and he counsels clients on governance, regulatory matters, internal investigations and government relations. Trujillo earned his undergraduate degree from Evangel University and his law degree from University of Pennsylvania Law School. He has been selected for inclusion in the "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" list annually since 2005.

Stewart Weintraub

Weintraub is the practice chair emeritus for the firm's State and Local Tax (S.A.L.T) practice. With more than 45 years of experience, he helps clients plan and structure transactions to minimize state and local tax obligations. Weintraub represents clients in all aspects of state and local tax compliance and litigation, from audits, through trials and appeals, to the appellate courts. He earned his undergraduate degree from Drexel University and his law degree from Temple University Beasley School of Law. Weintraub has been selected for inclusion in the “Pennsylvania Super Lawyers” list annually since 2004.

Jennifer Karpchuk

Karpchuk is the practice co-chair for the firm’s State and Local Tax (S.A.L.T) practice. She focuses her practice on all aspects of state and local tax controversy and planning. Karpchuk is a nationally sought-after speaker and writer on topics related to state and local tax. She also co-authors the Pennsylvania Tax Handbook and the Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Bar Association’s Property Tax Deskbook. Karpchuk earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Delaware and her law degree from Temple University Beasley School of Law. She has been selected for inclusion in the “Pennsylvania Rising Star” list in 2016-2019.
