Chamberlain Hrdlicka Adds Ex-IRS Trial Attorney In Atlanta

Article in Law360 Pulse about Erin Hines joining the Atlanta Office

Law360 Pulse

December 11, 2022

In an article published by Law360 Pulse on December 6, 2022, Atlanta-based Senior Counsel Erin Hines prior experience and legal background is profiled as she is introduced as the latest addition to join the firm. Hines joined the firm as a senior counsel in the tax controversy and litigation practice where she will help represent clients in disputes with local, state and federal taxing authorities and in state and federal courts.

The article also quotes John Hackney, equity shareholder in the tax and tax controversy and litigation practices, about Erin's arrival and the continued growth for the Atlanta office.

Erin brings significant experience in tax litigation, and we are excited about adding her capabilities to serve our trusted clients with these critical legal needs," he said. "We continue to remain competitive by adding seasoned attorneys in our Atlanta office, and we look forward to working with Erin to develop solutions for the clients our firm represents."
