Articles highlight Chamberlain Hrdlicka's growth in 2023 Revenues, Profits and Attorneys

May 1, 2024

In articles published in The Daily Report and Texas Lawyer, Managing Shareholder Larry Campagna discussed Chamberlain Hrdlicka's increased profits and additional growth the firm had in 2023.

The article mentions that the firm increased revenues by 17%, to $126.4 million in 2023. Campagna told the Daily Report that Chamberlain had added many new lawyers to the tax controversy practice last year, while other practices in the legal industry may not have seen the same demand that our firm experienced.

We added a lot of lawyers to deal with those issues, Campagna said. We already had a lot of the work and were adding lawyers to keep up with the work. He also spoke about hybrid work at the firm, and how the responsibility is up to the practice group leaders.
