Chamberlain Hrdlicka Receives The Atlanta Journal-Constitution's 2024 Top Workplaces Recognition

Atlanta Office a Top Workplaces 2024 Honoree

August 20, 2024

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that The Atlanta Journal-Constitution named the firm a Top Workplaces 2024 honoree. The firm ranked highest among other law firms in the top small businesses category in the Atlanta area. The full list can be found here.

"We are honored to be included as one of the top businesses in Atlanta," said Scott Augustine, Atlanta office managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "This recognition validates our commitment to establishing a welcoming and productive workplace culture for employees in any of our offices."

Chamberlain Hrdlicka continually finds ways to support collaboration and well-being for the firm's employees through encouraging pro bono work, its employee wellness program and a social calendar to develop relationships in the workplace. Fostering a culture of support and inclusivity while always providing the best service to its clients is always a top priority at the firm.

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and Energage, an employment research and consulting firm, conducted this no-cost scientific survey program to determine the best places to work in metro Atlanta. Top Workplaces are determined on quantitative employee feedback through confidential surveys. This year, a record 9,108 companies were nominated or asked to participate by employees and community members. Of those, 314 companies, representing 124,070 workers, participated.
