Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Houston-based team, led by Habeeb 'Hobbs' Gnaim, represented Centex Construction (Centex) in a new partnership with O2 Investment Partners (O2), a Michigan-based private equity firm, to support the company's rapid growth.

Headquartered in Tomball, TX and with a footprint across eight states in the southern United States, Centex is a leading provider of renovation, restoration, and maintenance services for existing, largescale multi-family property managers and owners, completing thousands of jobs annually with many of the largest nationally recognized property managers and owners in the United States.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Umair Karowadia (Tax Planning & Business Transactions), Marianne Standley (Tax Planning & Business Transactions), Pearson Wolk (Tax Planning & Business Transactions), Aly Dossa (Intellectual Property), Jack Najarian (Real Estate), Matt Stirneman (Banking/Finance), Kellen Scott (Labor & Employment), Joshua Sutin (Employee Benefits), and Jeffrey Della Rocco (Employee Benefits) assisted with the transaction.

"This is an exciting chapter for Centex and we are thrilled to partner with O2, which will enable us to accelerate our growth trajectory and further enhance the value we deliver to our customers," said Mark Whitehead. "From the onset of meeting the O2 team, we felt they immediately recognized our vision for continued expansion. Our partnership with O2 will allow us to pursue opportunities for organic and inorganic growth in adjacent verticals, geographies, and services to deliver greater impact for our customers."
