April 7, 2025

Atlanta

Chamberlain Hrdlicka today announced the relocation of the firms Atlanta office after 27 years downtown. The midsize, diversified law firm signed a new lease at 999 Peachtree a LEED Platinum, 28-story building located at the intersection of 10th and Peachtree Streets.

We will relocate to the new Midtown Atlanta office and occupy the 19th and 20th floors of the property beginning September 2026. The building recently completed significant renovations featuring a newly designed lobby and building entrance, outdoor collaboration areas, innovative conference facilities, a state-of-the-art fitness center, and updated food and beverage options.

We've been dedicated to Atlanta's business community for nearly four decades and are excited to continue contributing to this dynamic city, said Scott Augustine, Chair of the Corporate, Securities, and Finance practice and Atlanta Office Managing Shareholder at Chamberlain Hrdlicka. Our decision to relocate our Atlanta office reflects our commitment to finding a space that supports both our present and future needs as our firm continues to grow.
