"Idea to Disperse DOJ Tax Lawyers Draws Mixed Initial Reactions," Tax Notes

March 31, 2025

In an article published by Tax Notes International on March 31, 2025, Former IRS Commissioner and Shareholder Chuck Rettig weighed in on a Justice Department memo suggesting sending Tax Division lawyers to U.S. attorneys offices.

Rettig discussed the importance of having a political appointee for the Tax Division to assist in this decision-making process.

What the country really needs is an experienced, Senate-confirmed assistant attorney general of the Tax Division to assist the deputy attorney general in making these decisions, stated Rettig.
