Chamberlain Hrdlicka Shareholders Scott Ratchick and Gina Vitiello Recognized in Legal 500s Inaugural U.S. City Elite Ranking for Commercial Disputes in Atlanta

June 30, 2025

Legal 500 today announced two Chamberlain Hrdlicka shareholders, Scott Ratchick and Gina Vitiello, to its inaugural U.S. City Elite ranking in the Commercial Disputes category in Atlanta.

Scott Ratchick maintains a nationwide litigation practice with emphasis in the areas of complex commercial, franchise, shareholder and business disputes, and investment-related litigation. In connection with this practice, he represents publicly and privately held companies, officers, directors and principals, registered investment representatives, broker-dealers and banks in state and federal courts and various arbitration forums throughout the country.

Gina Vitiello serves as the Chair of Chamberlain Hrdlickas Construction Law practice group where she focuses on construction contracts and litigation. She represents owners, contractors, designers, and suppliers in the construction industry throughout the country and internationally in commercial, industrial, and energy projects. Vitiello specializes in handling delay and impact claims, design and construction defect issues, and contractor and subcontractor default claims.

Chamberlain Hrdlickas diverse and experienced Commercial Litigation practice provides deep experience and strategic insight to help protect clients interests in complex disputes nationwide, including high-stakes, "bet-the-company" matters. The team handles all phases of litigation, including trials, arbitrations, and appeals in both state and federal courts, representing a wide range of clients, from Fortune 500 companies to small and mid-sized businesses and individuals.

Legal 500s U.S. City Elite rankings highlight the nations top lawyers at regional powerhouses who handle high-end legal work in their respective cities. Recognized attorneys are selected based on interviews with top practitioners, referee and peer feedback, and key matters worked on by the ranked attorneys during the past year. For more details, visit the Legal 500 website.
