Chamberlain Hrdlicka Shareholder Brett T. Berly Named Finalist in Best Mentors Category of 2025 Texas Legal Awards

July 31, 2025

Houston July 29, 2025 Chamberlain Hrdlicka is proud to announce that Houston-based shareholder Brett T. Berly has been named a finalist in the Best Mentors category for the 2025 Texas Legal Awards, presented by Texas Lawyer.

The Texas Legal Awards, now in its 2025 edition, celebrate excellence across Texas legal profession, recognizing attorneys and firms that have made impactful contributions to the legal community. The Best Mentors award honors lawyers who demonstrate extraordinary commitment to guiding, supporting, and developing the next generation of legal talent.

A shareholder and chair of Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Trusts & Estates practice group, Berly specializes in estate planning, administration, fiduciary litigation, business succession, and tax planning for high-net-worth clients and families. He has been widely recognized in Chambers USA: High Net Worth Guide, Best Lawyers in America, and Texas Super Lawyers among others.

I am honored to be recognized among my peers as a finalist for the Best Mentors award, said Berly. Mentorship is a privilege and responsibility both myself and the firm take to heart and I'm grateful for the opportunity to support others in their growth.

Finalists for the Texas Legal Awards are selected through a competitive nomination and editorial review process conducted by Texas Lawyer. Candidates are evaluated based on the depth of their professional contributions, leadership within the legal community, and the meaningful impact they've made through mentorship and career development.
