Chamberlain Hrdlicka Advises ZT Corporate in Latest Acquisition of Texas Emergency Care Centers

Houston-based team led by Habeeb "Hobbs" Gnaim and Dave Pierson represents ZT Corporate in Strategic Acquisition of Four Express ER Facilities in Texas

November 13, 2025

HOUSTON, November 13, 2025 Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce its representation of ZT Corporate, a Houston-based private equity firm specializing in healthcare investments, in its completed acquisition of four emergency care centers operating under the Express ER brand.

This transaction advances ZT Corporate's healthcare growth strategy across Texas. With the addition of these facilities, ZT Corporate's healthcare portfolio, Altus Community Healthcare, now operates 35 emergency care centers statewide, solidifying its position as Texas's largest emergency services provider.

The legal team for ZT Corporate was led by Houston-based Shareholders Habeeb Hobbs Gnaim and Dave Pierson. The transactions legal team also included significant contributions from Jack Li, Marianne Standley, Jack Najarian, Kellen Scott, Aly Dossa, Joshua Sutin, and Jeffrey Della Rocco.

This transaction reflects our commitment to supporting our clients with ambitious growth visions; ZT Corporates push to expand their presence in the emergency care space and grow their portfolio has been inspiring, said Gnaim. This transaction required navigating complex legal and tax considerations and our team was proud to provide the strategic counsel needed to bring this deal to close successfully.

Chamberlain Hrdlickas representation of ZT Corporate highlights the firms ongoing success in guiding clients through significant M&A deals with a focus on aligning business momentum with legal precision to deliver results.

This transaction builds on Gnaim and Piersons recent recognition in Legal 500s Inaugural U.S. City Elite Ranking for Mergers & Acquisitions in Houston. Chamberlain Hrdlicka also was named M&A Law Firm of the Year at the 23rd Annual M&A Advisor Awards. The firm is currently a finalist in 15 Deal of the Year categories for the 24th Annual M&A Advisor Awards, taking place November 19, 2025.
