Atlanta Patch and East Cobb Patch

February 3, 2017

In an article published by Patch on Feb. 3, 2017, John Hackney is mentioned for his election to shareholder. As a member of the firms Tax Controversy & Litigation practice, Hackney represents individuals and businesses in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service and other taxing authorities. Johns hard work and dedication to his clients and the community have contributed significantly to the success of the firm as well as the growth of the Atlanta office, said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. His elevation to shareholder is well deserved, and a testament to his commitment to delivering excellent client service and achieving outstanding results for his clients.
