Chamberlain Hrdlicka Adds John Meredith as COO

Atlanta Patch

June 21, 2017

In articles published by Atlanta Patch and East Cobb Patch, Chamberlain Hrdlicka announces the arrival of John Meredith to the firm as COO.

A new position created to manage the firms nationwide growth, Meredith will oversee the strategic planning and budget management for the firm, as well as business development, facilities and human resources management, recruitment, diversity, professional development pro bono and other important initiatives.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka has recently experienced significant growth in all of its offices and we determined we needed an experienced business executive to guide us in our continued expansion, said Wayne Risoli, the firms managing partner. John possesses years of experience managing the business side of law firms and companies and we are excited about working together as we move forward.
