Jennifer Garner New Hire Announcement Shared in Atlanta Journal-Constitution and Daily Report

In the Sunday print edition, the Atlanta Journal-Constitution shared the news of Jennifer Garner's recent arrival to Chamberlain Hrdlicka. Garner joins the firm in Atlanta as a real estate associate, where she represents property owners, breweries, developers and other industry professionals in all aspects of commercial real estate, including the acquisition and disposition of property, commercial leasing and helping clients navigate complex business and institutional concerns involving real estate. The news of her addition to the firm was also shared in the Daily Report's On the Move column.

Garner is admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. She earned her law degree from Suffolk University Law School.

Subscribers to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution may access the mention in the Business section of the June 16 print edition. Subscribers to the Daily Report may view the mention here.
