Mid-Market Recap: Bullish - or at least Optimistic - in Texas

Law.Com - The Mid-Market Report

November 15, 2019

Wayne Risoli was quoted in Law.Com in The Mid-Market Report about Chamberlain Hrdlicka's production numbers being at record levels through the first three quarters of 2019.

He said the firm considers it a good year if the numbers are 5-10% higher than the previous year. At the time of the article, Risoli said the firm's numbers were up 18% from 2018. And it isn't just one practice area either. He said that the firm's numbers were up across all sections of the firm.

He noted that the tax practices were up substantially and attributed that to "the turmoil and uncertainty in the business community." He said that the firm is benefiting from the mega-mergers because it is causing rate increases that are leading more clients to choose Chamberlain Hrdlicka.
