Chamberlain Hrdlicka elevates Jillian Foerster to Shareholder during First Virtual Shareholders Meeting

Jillian Foerster elevated to Chamberlain Hrdlicka Shareholder

March 2, 2021

Chamberlain Hrdlicka recently elevated Jillian Foerster to income shareholder during the firm's virtual annual shareholders meeting. The firm has also promoted two income shareholders to equity status and two additional attorneys to income shareholder status across its Atlanta, Houston, Philadelphia and San Antonio offices.

Foerster practices in the area of Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) and Employee Benefits law in Chamberlain Hrdlicka's San Antonio office. She has significant experience with all compliance aspects for qualified plans, health and welfare plans and executive compensation arrangements. She frequently advises clients on employee benefits and executive compensation matters as part of mergers or acquisitions.

Foerster has a particular interest in healthcare reform compliance for employer health and welfare plans, HIPAA Privacy and Security rules, wellness programs and self-funded health plans. She also counsels clients on the insurer and third-party administrator side of employer welfare plans.

Foerster earned her undergraduate degree from Southwestern University and her law degree from Texas Tech University School of Law, where she was the managing editor for the Texas Tech Law Review. She is a member of Bexar County Women's Bar Association and the Military Spouse JD Network—a bar association of attorney spouses of active duty military members. She has been named among San Antonio Scene's Rising Stars and Best Lawyers multiple times, including in 2020 and 2021.
