Jaime Vasquez is a tax attorney in San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Vasquez is the Managing Shareholder of Chamberlain's San Antonio Office and serves on the firm's Board of Directors.

Mr. Vasquez concentrates his practice on federal, state, and international tax controversy matters, including income, employment, sales, franchise, and other excise matters before the IRS and state taxing authorities. He has experience resolving IRS examinations, collection cases, installment agreements, offers in compromise, requests for collection due process hearings, private letter rulings, and requests for innocent spouse relief.

Mr. Vasquez has also resolved numerous administrative appeals before the IRS Office of Appeals. Mr. Vasquez has also handled civil tax litigation matters, including proceedings before the United States Tax Court, United States District Court, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

Mr. Vasquez has settled a number of cases before the IRS Office of Chief Counsel short of or during trial. Mr. Vasquez has also provided defense in criminal tax matters and has successfully resolved cases before the IRS Criminal Investigation Division. Mr. Vasquez has also organized and provided business and tax planning advice to corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies. Mr. Vasquez represents a broad range of clients including individuals, privately held businesses, and large Fortune 500 companies.

Mr. Vasquez is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Prior to entering the practice of law, Mr. Vasquez worked with a Big Four public accounting firm where he advised mid-size to large multi-national corporations on federal, state, local, and international tax issues, and prepared and reviewed U.S. federal and state income tax returns.

Mr. Vasquez strongly believes in giving back to the community. Mr. Vasquez serves as the President-Elect of the San Antonio Bar Association (SABA) and is a member of the Audit Committee of the San Antonio Water Systems (SAWS) Board of Trustees
