Leo Unzeitig is a shareholder in Chamberlain Hrdlicka's San Antonio office. He assists with a wide range of federal tax controversy and litigation matters at all stages before the Internal Revenue Service and federal courts. Leo also advises on tax planning and transaction matters, including state and local tax issues.

For several semesters, Leo was an adjunct professor at the University of the Incarnate Word teaching Tax Research. He also regularly enjoys counseling taxpayers through the Tax Court Pro Bono Program sponsored by the State Bar of Texas Tax Section and takes great pride in being a contributing member of the Texas Society of CPAs Federal Tax Policy Committee.

Before joining Chamberlain Hrdlicka, Leo served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Juan F. Vasquez of the U.S. Tax Court in Washington, D.C. Leo is also a Certified Public Accountant and Board Certified in Tax Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

About Chamberlain Hrdlicka

Chamberlain Hrdlicka started as a tax boutique firm in 1965. While Chamberlain Hrdlicka has expanded with offices nationwide, the tax practice remains the core strength of the firm, with approximately half of our total lawyers practicing in one of the varied fields of tax law. Many of our attorneys are board certified in tax law or estate planning or related areas and have worked with the IRS, the Department of Justice Tax Division, and the Tax Court. The Firm represents a wide range of large multinationals and public companies, privately held businesses, partnerships and joint ventures, individuals, and estates and tax-exempt organizations in a broad range of business advisory, transactional, litigation, and collection matters.
