

Practice Areas

- Tax
- International Tax
- Tax Controversy & Litigation

Education

- Southwestern University, B.A. in Art History, 2015
- DePaul College of Law, J.D., 2018
- Editor-in-Chief of the DePaul Journal of Art, Technology and Intellectual Property
- University of Houston, LL.M in Taxation, 2019

Honors

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America - Litigation & Controversy - Tax, 2021-2025
- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America - Tax Law, 2021-2025
- Guest Lecturer, University of Houston – Post-Mortem Estate Planning (2023)
- Recognized in “Women in the Law” Business Edition of Best Lawyers in America (2021)

Morgan Alleyn

Associate

Houston

1200 Smith Street, Suite 1400
Houston, Texas 77002-4310
Tel: 713.658.2562
Fax: 713.658.2553
morgan.alleyn@chamberlainlaw.com
www.chamberlainlaw.com

Morgan Alleyn is an associate in the Tax Controversy and International Tax Sections. She concentrates her practice on federal tax controversies involving international issues, both civil and criminal, voluntary and responsive, and international planning work.

Ms. Alleyn's controversy work focuses primarily on guiding clients through the Streamlined Domestic and Foreign Offshore Procedures, the Delinquent Information Return and FBAR Submission Procedures, and various other methods for coming into compliance.

In terms of international tax planning, Ms. Alleyn assists clients with a variety of international and domestic transactions, including immigration and emigration planning, cross border business transactions, and restructurings.

Ms. Alleyn has been recognized as one of Best Lawyers in America's Ones to Watch for 2021, 2022, and 2023, as well as Women in the Law's 2021 list of Best Lawyers in America.

Professional Affiliations

- Member, Houston Bar Association
- Member, Texas Young Lawyers Association

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Morgan Alleyn, Continued

