Ragan J. Robichaux is an associate attorney in the Litigation group in Houston. He received his J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center and while in law school, interned at the Office of Congressman Dan Crenshaw and worked with several public officials and public/private entities on future flood mitigation plans for local areas impacted by Hurricane Harvey.

As a former collegiate athlete, Ragan applies his competitive drive and outside-the-box thinking to find his clients the best possible outcome in any given scenario.
