Katy Andrade represents clients in complex commercial disputes and civil litigation. She focuses on commercial litigation, products liability, and insurance coverage matters, with particular depth in complex insurance coverage matters.

Katy manages the full lifecycle of litigation, from early case assessment through trial. Clients value her pragmatic, no-nonsense approach to strategy, risk evaluation, and dispute resolution. A forward-thinking practitioner, Katy stays current with emerging technologies and artificial intelligence developments that impact litigation practice and her clients industries. She balances strategic precision with practical efficiency to achieve the best client outcomes.

Outside the firm, Katy is a coach's wife well-versed in the rhythm of football and soccer seasons, sideline life, and postgame debriefs. She and her husband, Michael, are the proud parents of Quinn and Clyde.
