Andrew Mullendore is a member of both the Tax Controversy & Litigation Group and the Tax Group, based in the Atlanta office. Licensed as a CPA, he practices as a tax attorney specializing in all forms of tax, federal and state tax controversies and investigations, including sensitive issue examinations, administrative appeals, and civil tax litigation. His clients often include high net worth individuals and their closely held entities, business enterprises, partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations, and others. Andrew applies his skills as both a practicing tax attorney and CPA to achieve successful results for clients throughout all stages of the tax controversy process. Andrew collaborates with colleagues from all offices to represent clients throughout the country on a wide spectrum of substantive and procedural issues, including:

- Federal and state tax examinations and administrative Appeals
- Employee Retention Credits (ERCs)
- Micro-Captive insurance arrangements;
- Syndicated Conservation easements;
- Offshore tax reporting issues;
- Cryptocurrency representation;
- Tax return preparer audits, including issues regarding due diligence;
- Tax litigation before the Tax Court, US District Court, US Court of Federal Claims and the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals;
- Trust fund recovery penalties;
- Audit reconsiderations;
- EFIN suspension and expulsion relief;
- Innocent spouse relief and related issues;
- Equitable spouse relief;.
- IRS Criminal investigations.
