Philip Karter specializes in tax controversy and tax litigation matters. In his 40-plus year career, Mr. Karter has litigated Federal tax cases in the United States District Courts, the United States Tax Court and the United States Court of Federal Claims and argued in the United States Court of Appeals in multiple circuits. His range of trial experience, which includes dozens of jury and non-jury cases tried to judgment, encompasses a wide variety of complex and high-profile tax matters, a number of which have involved issues of first impression. Mr. Karter's deep experience in the tax controversy and litigation process, working both for and against the government, also provides him with valuable insights on how to structure and document transactions to avoid future tax disputes or, if such disputes are inevitable, to position such transactions in the best possible light to successfully withstand IRS scrutiny and challenge.

Representative examples of tax controversy and litigation matters/issues handled by Mr. Karter include:

- Hostile takeover expenses
- Basis shifting and other tax reduction transactions
- Transfer pricing adjustments
- Worthless stock losses
- Captive insurance arrangements
- Income, estate and gift tax valuation issues
- Tax and tax penalty issues involving cryptocurrency (Bitcoin, Ethereum, etc.)
- Tax audits under Puerto Rico's Act 20 and 22, and now Act 60.
- Disguised sales and other partner/partnership recharacterizations
- Debt-equity swaps and other financial product issues
- Greenmail / hostile takeover defense payments
- Foreign tax credits

Significant Cases

- [June 2022] Achieved highly favorable settlement of first-impression issue for Fortune 250 consumer products client involving eligibility for historic tax credits based on placed-in-service requirement for historic structure that had never been occupied prior to rehabilitation.
- [April 2017] Obtained no adjustment letters (full IRS concessions) for a major low-income housing project developer/tax credit syndicator after the IRS conceded proposed aggregate audit adjustments of $5 million for alleged disguised sales by partnerships to their partners of state low income housing tax credits. Also obtained a full concession of IRS $1 million adjustment against syndicator claiming that sales of partnership interests were ordinary income rather than capital gain.
- [Oct. 2014] Represented major Fortune 250 manufacturer in nine-figure transfer pricing dispute involving valuation of intangible assets. Matter resolved/settled for approximately one percent of proposed adjustment.
- HealthMark Group Ltd. et al. v. Commissioner, No. 008269-14 (U.S. Tax Court, filed Apr. 14, 2014). Obtained full IRS concession in Tax Court case involving the purported application of Rev. Rul. 2005-40 to disregarded entities claiming insurance deductions paid to captive insurer. Successfully argued that Revenue Ruling was incompatible with 7701 check-the-box regulations and that disregarded entities with common ownership can achieve adequate risk distribution.
- Carfagno Auto Sales Inc. v. Commissioner, No. 12269-14 (U.S. Tax Court, filed May 28, 2014). Filed suit in Tax Court after adverse CDP appeal hearing on alleged deficiency in employment taxes. Obtained full IRS concession of deficiency as well as refunds of all overpayments for other tax periods that had been erroneously applied against that deficiency.
- Gateway Hotel Partners, LLC et al. v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo 2014-5 (Jan. 9, 2014). Lead trial counsel for participating partner challenging $22 million proposed adjustment to partnership income arising from alleged sale by partnership of state historic tax credits distributed to other partner. Tax Court ruled in participating partner's favor with respect to 89% of the proposed tax deficiency.
- Frontier Oil Corporation v. Commissioner, Docket No. 21151-10 (U.S. Tax Court, filed Sep. 23, 2010). Lead trial counsel for taxpayer claiming 162(m)(4)(C) exception to limitation on deductability of qualified performance-based compensation and challenging interpretation of treasury regulation, which was subsequently amended as a result of case. (Case settled)
- WFC Holdings Corp. v. United States, 728 F.3d 736 (8th Cir. 2013). Lead trial counsel and co-appellate counsel for taxpayer claiming $423 million capital loss from the sale of stock in a contingent liability lease management subsidiary. (Decision for Gov't.; certiorari denied, June 9, 2014)
- Browning Ferris Industries, Inc. & Subsidiaries v. United States, 75 Fed.CI. 591 (2007) - Court granted motion to dismiss without prejudice in case of first impression involving question of whether tax refund claim filed by company that had previously liquidated for tax purposes was jurisdictionally defective. (Case settled on remand from Fed. Cir.)
- Black & Decker Corp. v. United States, 340 F. Supp. 2d 621 (D. Md. 2004), aff'd in part, rev'd in part and remanded, 436 F.3d 431 (4th Cir. 2006) - Trial counsel for taxpayer claiming $560 million capital loss from the sale of stock in a contingent liability health care subsidiary. (Case settled on remand from 4th Cir.)
- Kohler Co. v. United States, 468 F.3d 1032 (7th Cir. 2006), aff'd. 387 F. Supp. 2d 921 (E.D. Wis. 2005) - Represented taxpayer at trial and appellate level. Obtained Seventh Circuit decision affirming summary judgment in favor of taxpayer's claim that participation in Mexican debt-equity swap did not produce short-term capital gain.
