

Practice Areas

- Tax
- Tax Controversy & Litigation

Education

- University of Michigan - Dearborn, B.A, high distinction, 2019
- Michigan State University College of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2022
- Associate Editor, Animal and Natural Resource Law Review, Michigan State University College of Law
- Georgetown University Law Center, LL.M., 2023

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania
- Maryland

Court Admissions

- U.S. Tax Court
- Supreme Court of Maryland

Clerkships

- Judicial Law Clerk to Judge Christian N. Weiler of the U.S. Tax Court (May 2023 - October 2023)

Katherine A. Wheeler

Associate

Philadelphia

300 Conshohocken State Road
Suite 570
West Conshohocken, PA 19428
Tel: 610.772.2332
Fax: 610.772.2305
katherine.wheeler@chamberlainlaw.com
www.chamberlainlaw.com

Katherine Wheeler is an associate in the Tax Controversy and Litigation group in the Philadelphia office.

Prior to joining Chamberlain, Katherine served at the United States Tax Court as a judicial law clerk for Judge Weiler and Special Trial Judge Fried. While in law school, Katherine worked as a student attorney in Michigan State University's Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic.

Katherine received her LL.M. in taxation from Georgetown University Law Center, her J.D. from Michigan State University, and her undergraduate degree in philosophy and political science from the University of Michigan - Dearborn.

Katherine A. Wheeler, Continued

- Judicial Law Clerk to Special Trial Judge
Zachary S. Fried of the U.S. Tax Court (October
2023 - September 2024)