Fletcher Farley provides experienced product liability defense to manufacturers, distributors, retailers and importers of component parts and finished products. Our firm has substantial experience representing major national and international manufacturers involved in product liability claims, including:

- Manufacturing machinery
- Recreational vehicles, ATVs, and recreational watercraft
- Construction equipment
- Agricultural and farm equipment
- Personal protective equipment, including helmets and facial protection
- Plumbing equipment, and plumbing test equipment
- Overhead cranes and monorail systems
- Oil and gas industry equipment, including piping
- Statewide representation for TASER International, Inc.
- Elevators, manlifts, and other lifting devices
- Recreational products including water skis, towlines, hockey, soccer, and other equipment
- Pharmaceutical products
- Nutritional supplements
- Automotive components
- Children's and infant products, such as toys, cribs, strollers, or child car restraints

Beyond our formidable capacity in the courtroom, experience and knowledge informs Fletcher Farley's counsel and representation. These qualities are demonstrated by:

- Our comprehension of the modern world of international manufacturing, distribution and retail sales, and the place of our client's product within that universe
- Our thorough understanding of the client's product, and our ability to convey that knowledge effectively to judges, juries, mediators, or other appropriate audiences
- Our ability to quickly assess the strengths and weaknesses of potential claims
