

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Fletcher Farley provides arbitration, mediation, and negotiation of a full range of legal matters.

Our record of positive outcomes at trial and around the negotiation table has spurred our success in obtaining early resolution of disputes on behalf of our clients.

We are fierce adversaries; however, we seek rapid resolution of conflict to maintain our clients' best interests. Where possible, we step outside the courtroom arena in an attempt to achieve satisfactory results without the drains of time and expense involved with traditional litigation.

Fletcher Farley's goal is to deliver rapid resolution, whether it is achieved through prompt pre-suit evaluation and negotiation, early mediation, or intricate arbitration.
