Breck, a Dallas native and Highland Park graduate, earned his bachelor's degree and several years later a J.D. from Pepperdine University in Malibu, California. Prior to starting his legal career, Breck developed his skills in persuasion and salesmanship—the art of a true trial lawyer, as a broker/agent, in the real estate business.

Breck focuses his practice on defending individuals and corporate entities who are sued for claims related to premises liability, catastrophic personal injury, motor vehicle accidents, transportation, and general liability litigation.

Breck resides in Dallas with his dog, Arrow. Outside of the office, Breck enjoys golf and the fine arts. He also is an avid fan of all Dallas sports.
