Grace Negem focuses her practice on insurance defense, premises liability, and commercial litigation.

Grace grew up in Tyler, Texas before making her way to Waco where she attended both Baylor University and Baylor Law School. Prior to attending law school, Grace worked in several different areas of public relations. This experience not only taught her the importance of crisis management and conflict resolution but made Grace passionate about studying complex litigation throughout her time at Baylor Law.

Outside of the office, she enjoys playing tennis, needlepointing, traveling, and spending time with friends and family.
