Jason is a native Texan who was born and raised in Dallas. Before attending law school at North Texas School of law, he spent a number of years in the healthcare industry and then worked as a plaintiff's lawyer. This background has provided him with a flexible attitude and willingness to work with others which helps him provide excellent legal work while navigating personalities and the litigation process efficiently.

Jason represents clients involving claims in premises liability, products liability and construction defect cases.

Outside of work, Jason enjoys watching sports and spending time with his family.
