Miguel Bustilloz focuses his practice in civil litigation, commercial litigation and personal injury defense. His experience includes serving as lead attorney at jury trials, bench trials and hearings as well as preparing clients for mediations and depositions.

As a native Texan, Miguel enjoys giving back to his community. While working for Legal Aid of Northwest Texas, he established legal clinics at Catholic Charities and Angel House Family Violence Shelter. He also mentored mock trial teams competing in the YMCA's Texas Youth and Government program.

Miguel graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a B.A. in 2005, and received his J.D. from the University of Arizona in 2009. He was admitted to the State Bar of Texas in 2009.
