

Mamat re-elected as Chairman of the Board of the American Society of Employers Educational Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 4, 2012

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich. — Frank T. Mamat, a shareholder at Foster Swift Collins & Smith P.C. was re-elected as Chairman of the Board of the American Society of Employers Educational Foundation. The American Society of Employers is a not-for-profit employer association serving Michigan's business community. The American Society of Employers provides programs and services that enable member organizations to address their most challenging issues.

Mamat's practice areas include: labor relations, construction law, employment litigation, ERISA, employment, labor & benefits, civil rights and discrimination- unlawful harassment. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan. Mamat is the President of the Detroit Area Construction Association. He serves as President of the Labor Employment Relations Association (Detroit) and the 400 Club of Oakland County and many other community organizations.