

Reynolds Honored by Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Michigan

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 31, 2012

LANSING, Mich. - Frank Reynolds, a shareholder at the law firm of Foster Swift Collins & Smith PC, was presented with the Anne Schneidewind Impact Award by Big Brothers and Big Sisters for the Michigan Capital Region at the Kellogg Center at Michigan State University. Reynolds receives this award for his untiring service and commitment to mentoring disadvantaged youth in the community. In good company, Reynolds was honored for his service along with Michigan State Football coach Mark Dantonio.

Focusing his practice on criminal defense, family law and professional and occupational licensing, Reynolds is a member of Foster Swift's General Litigation practice group. In recognition of his contributions to the practice of law and his commitment to ensuring high standards of practice, Mr. Reynolds has received numerous awards and recognitions, including leadership positions in the local and state bar associations, numerous selections as Special Prosecutor, appointments to boards and inclusion in Best Lawyers in America and Michigan Super Lawyers. Reynolds completed his undergraduate studies at Michigan State University and received his law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing.