

Foster Swift hires John Bonandrini as new Information Technology Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 6, 2013

Lansing, Mich. –John Bonandrini joins Foster Swift’s Lansing office as the Director of Information Technology. With more than 20 years experience managing all facets of office technology, he will assist in the training and networking of Foster Swift employees as well as manage all hardware and software technology.

Bonandrini completed his undergraduate studies at Alma College and received a Master’s Degree from Bowling Green State University in Ohio.