

Frank Reynolds to Join Foster Swift

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 15, 2008

Lansing

Lansing's largest law firm has announced that Frank Harrison Reynolds is joining the firm as a shareholder effective January 1. Mr. Reynolds will join the firm's litigation practice group and will continue to focus his practice in the area of criminal defense.

"We are very pleased that Frank is joining Foster Swift. He brings a solid reputation, outstanding ethics and capabilities to handle criminal defense matters unmatched in the Lansing region. He is a great addition to our firm," stated Gary J. McRay, President of the Michigan law firm.

Mr. Reynolds has successfully defended many high profile cases in Ingham County and throughout Michigan. With his success comes many opportunities to speak and teach. He has presented and lectured across Michigan to educational, charitable, and professional legal organizations, high school classes, community college and college classes, and he has served in adjunct professorships at both area law schools, Thomas M. Cooley and Michigan State University's College of Law.

In recognition of his contributions to the practice of law and his commitment to ensuring high standards of practice, Mr. Reynolds has received numerous awards and recognitions, including leadership positions in the local and state bar associations, numerous selections as Special Prosecutor, appointments to boards and inclusion in Best Lawyers in America, Michigan Super Lawyers, and appointment by U.S. Supreme Court Justice, William H. Rehnquist, to the Magistrate Judge Education Advisory Committee of the Federal Judicial Center.

Mr. Reynolds received his law degree from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School, and holds a Master of Arts degree and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University. He is admitted to practice in Michigan and in the United States District Court for the Eastern and Western Districts of Michigan, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.
