

David M. Lick Wins Camille S. Abood Distinguished Volunteer Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 21, 2008

LANSING, Mich. - The law firm of Foster Swift is pleased to announce that attorney David M. Lick was named by the Ingham County Bar Association at the 2008 recipient of its Camille S. Abood Distinguished Volunteer Award.

Mr. Lick is highly experienced in Commercial Litigation, Construction Law, Employment Litigation, Information Technology Law, Real Estate Development, Business Succession Planning, Administrative Law, Insurance Law, Municipalities and Trade Secret and Noncompete Contracts.

Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith, P.C. is a law firm founded on the 106 year-old tradition of quality service based on experience, performance and results. With offices in Lansing, Farmington Hills, Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Marquette the firm's attorneys provide general, local and special counsel to businesses and individuals throughout the Midwest.

Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith, P.C. is a law firm founded on the 106 year-old tradition of quality service based on experience, performance and results. With offices in Lansing, Farmington Hills, Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Marquette, Michigan the firm's attorneys provide general, local and special counsel to businesses and individuals throughout the Midwest.