

Upcoming Webinar: What Every Municipal Treasurer Should Know About Bankruptcy

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Foster Swift Municipal Law News

June 30, 2015

In the last several years, consumer bankruptcy filings have been on the rise, especially in Michigan. City, township, village, and county treasurers often receive notices that a taxpayer or property owner has filed bankruptcy. When that happens, treasurers need to know what they can and cannot do with respect to the bankruptcy debtor and what the municipality should do to protect its rights and avoid violating bankruptcy law.

In this free webinar, Foster Swift attorney Laura Genovich explains municipalities' rights and obligations in consumer bankruptcy cases and provides practical tips for handling common issues like tax notices, water and sewer charges, and tax foreclosures in the face of a bankruptcy filing.

The webinar will take place from noon to 1 p.m. on July 9, 2015.
