

Ryan Lamb to Speak at Global Business Club of Mid-Michigan

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 19, 2015

East Lansing, Mich. - Attorney Ryan Lamb will present at the Global Business Club of Mid-Michigan event, "Utilizing MSU's International Student Talent to Further Your International Business Ventures."

"My goal with this workshop is to demystify the visa application process, so that employers and international students have a greater understanding and an increased comfort level when evaluating their hiring options," Lamb said.

Ryan is a business attorney with Foster Swift and regularly consults business & industry clients on obtaining visas. This is a detailed process for clients, which Ryan has championed.

The program will feature a panel of business persons and students discussing their experiences and answering questions about working together. The Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center will host the event at 5 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 19. Registration will begin at 4:30 p.m. and is $35 for attendees or $15 for students.
