Foster Swift Welcomes Four New Attorneys

ATTORNEYS

Taylor A. Gast

December 7, 2015

Lansing, Mich. – Foster Swift is excited to announce the addition of four new attorneys to the firm: Mark DeLuca, Taylor Gast, Rachel Gizicki and Tyler Olney.

Mark DeLuca joins the Trusts & Estates practice group in the Lansing office. He graduated from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University and the Eli Broad College of Business at Michigan State University, where he earned both his bachelor's degree and master's degree in accounting. DeLuca is also a Certified Public Accountant, licensed in both Michigan and Arizona.

Taylor Gast joins the Business & Corporate practice group in the Lansing office. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois College of Law. Gast earned his bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Michigan. He has previous experience in grant writing and other nonprofit fundraising.

Rachel Gizicki joins the General Litigation practice group in the Farmington Hills office. A graduate of Michigan State University College of Law, Rachel also received her bachelor's in Political Science from Michigan State University. She previously served as an extern for the Michigan Supreme Court.

Tyler Olney joins the General Litigation group in the Lansing office. He is a graduate of Michigan State University College of Law and Grand Valley State University. Olney was a merit scholar at MSU College of Law. He also was a member of the Law Review and Moot Court Board, where he received an award for Best Oral Advocate at the National Moot Court Competition. He is proficient in Spanish.

Foster Swift Collins & Smith, PC is a full service law firm founded in 1902. The firm employs 90-plus attorneys and over 100 support staff in five locations; Lansing, Detroit, Farmington Hills, Grand Rapids and Holland. For more information about the firm, its attorneys and to access recent publications, visit www.fosterswift.com.