

Fred Dilley Inducted to National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals for 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 17, 2016

LANSING - Frederick Dilley has been inducted into the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals, a professional association whose members are recognized for their skills in conflict resolution and alternative dispute-resolution.

Only 14 people in the State of Michigan have been chosen for this honor. Dilley, a civil litigation attorney in the Grand Rapids office, focuses most of his practice on alternative dispute resolution. He also works on the prosecution and defense of a wide variety of complex civil litigation on behalf of individuals, partnerships and other business entities.

Dilley is an AV® Preeminent™ rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell and has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America® since 1995 for arbitration and mediation. In 2015 he was named Best Lawyers® Grand Rapids Lawyer of the Year in the area of mediation. He is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers and International Society of Barristers. He is also a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates and a Life Member of the Judicial Conference of the U.S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.
