

Foster Swift Welcomes Frank T. Mamat

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 14, 2008

Lansing

Lansing, Mich — The law firm of Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith, P.C. is pleased to announce that Frank T. Mamat has joined the firm's Farmington Hills office.

Frank T. Mamat is one of the nation's preeminent labor law attorneys, and focuses his practices on complex labor issues, with a special focus on union matters, contract negotiations, unfair labor practice litigation, NLRB practice, organizing attempts by unions, mass picketing and violence, secondary boycotts and pressure, and Federal and State OSHA practice

Mamat has served as Senior Counsel to the National Labor Relations Board, General Counsel Office (Enforcement Litigation) in Washington, D.C. (1975-1979). He also served in the Executive Office of the President of the United States Inquiry Comments (1980-1983).

Mr. Mamat is admitted to practice law in Michigan, Florida, District of Columbia, United States Supreme Court, United States Court of Appeals-Six Circuit, United States District Court-Eastern District of Michigan, United States District Court-Northern District of Indiana, United States District Court-District of Columbia, and the United States Court of Appeals-District of Columbia Circuit.

Mr. Mamat is a member of the Federal, American, Michigan, Florida, and District of Columbia Bar Associations.

Frank earned his undergraduate degree, from the University of Rochester and is a graduate of the Syracuse University College of Law.

Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith, P.C. is a law firm founded on the 106 year-old tradition of high quality service based on experience, performance and results. With offices in Lansing, Farmington Hills, Detroit, and Grand Rapids, the firm's attorneys provide general, local and special counsel to businesses and individuals throughout the Midwest.