

The National Council for Public-Private Partnerships Presents: P3Connect 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRACTICE AREAS

Business & Commercial Litigation

June 21, 2016

P3Connect 2016 is the premier event for public-sector officials and private-sector innovators focused on advancing P3s nationwide. This year's program features four special sector-focused Symposiums on the hottest areas in public-private partnerships today.

Featured on the program is the Real Estate and Social Infrastructure Institute Symposium. Part of this Symposium will be a lively debate on engaging public leaders led by Moderator David Lick (Attorney with Foster Swift Collins & Smith PC) with Panelists James Iwanicki (Engineer-Manager with the Marquette County Road Commission in Marquette County, Mich.) and Teno West (Principal with Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC). This group will discuss effective ways to engage public sector leaders that could lead to growth in this sector.

P3Connect 2016 will be June 27-29 at VenueSIX10 in downtown Chicago. The Real Estate and Social Infrastructure Institute Symposium will convene June 28.

The National Council for Public-Private Partnerships (NCP3P) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization founded in 1985. The Council is a forum for the brightest ideas and innovators in the partnership arena. Its growing list of public and private sector members, with experience in a wide variety of public-private partnership arrangements, and its diverse training and public education programs represent vital core resources for partnering nationwide. NCP3P members bring an unmatched dedication to providing the most productive and cost-effective public services.

For more information about P3Connect 2016, including details on how to register, visit the conference website at <http://www.p3connect2016.org/> (We have identified that the following link is no longer active, and it has been removed). For more information about NCP3P, visit <http://www.ncp3p.org/>.