

Foster Swift Moves To Southfield To Support Growth, New Practice Areas

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 7, 2016

SOUTHFIELD - Foster Swift Collins & Smith PC (Foster Swift), a full-service law firm with a statewide presence, has relocated its Farmington Hills office to Southfield. The move supports new capacity and growth that is evidenced by the addition of two new lateral attorneys and one new associate in the last six months. Additionally, the firm has hired three new paralegals and two new legal secretaries. Within the next month Foster Swift will also have two additional lateral attorneys and five new associates join the firm.

The new office, located in the One Northwestern Plaza at 28411 Northwestern Highway, Suite 500, spans 20,000 square feet and features state-of-the-art conference rooms, client-centered technologies, 24-hour security and easy accessibility to highway interchanges. Additionally, the building is ENERGYSTAR certified and was previously honored as Building of the Year by the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA).

The Southfield location is among five other Foster Swift offices, including Lansing, Grand Rapids, Detroit, Holland and St. Joseph. Foster Swift has more than 100 attorneys and over 100 support staff statewide.

"Our new space was designed for our staff to provide the highest quality services to our clients across the state," says Michael Sanders, president and chair of the executive committee at Foster Swift. "Similar to our other locations, the Southfield office reflects a collegial and vibrant environment for our employees and clients that encourages collaboration and innovation."

Foster Swift was founded in 1902, serving a variety of public and private clients. Michigan's leading corporations, individuals and families, have relied on Foster Swift for across-the-board legal excellence. Each practice group is comprised of lawyers rated as the best by local clients and peers. As the 13th largest firm in the state capital, Foster Swift continues to grow by successfully addressing client needs and delivering exceptional results.
