

Cliff Hammond named PFFK Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATTORNEYS

Clifford L. Hammond

April 10, 2017

Cliff Hammond was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Oakland County Prosecutor's Foundation for Kids (PFFK). The PFFK is a charitable organization, founded by Oakland County Prosecutor Jessica Cooper, which purchases essential supplies, clothing and toys for children who are removed their home environment and placed in Building H at Children's Village (known as Mandy's place), when their parents, caregivers or grandparents are charged with abuse and/or neglect.

- For more information about the organization, click here (We have identified that the following link is no longer active, and it has been removed).
- For more about Cliff, click here.