

Unsung Legal Heroes Recognized at Foster Swift

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lansing Regional Chamber

June 26, 2018

Sharla Clements and Kim Hafley of Foster Swift have been named to Michigan Lawyer Weekly's list of 'Unsung Legal Heroes' Class of 2018.

The Unsung Legal Hero honorees are law firm employees who consistently go above and beyond the call of duty but are often working behind the scenes. This award is reserved for Michigan's most talented and dedicated legal support professionals, including law librarians, paralegals, legal secretaries and legal marketing staff.

Sharla, a legal secretary with the firm's Lansing office, is an absolute joy to work with, according to the attorneys she serves. She is knowledgeable, unbelievably calm in the face of intense pressure and often assists other attorneys when their secretaries are out of the office without complaint.

Always on the move, Kim is the firm's Director of Marketing. Kim excels at last-minute requests and works hard to please her attorney clientele. Her tireless execution of special projects in addition to her daily duties is unparalleled, as are her passion for and commitment to the ever-changing field of legal marketing. "Inside our firm, both of these outstanding people are well-known heroes," says Foster Swift Executive Director, Terry A. Blakely. "It is always great to see good people get recognition so well-deserved."

This year's class will be honored in a special edition of Michigan Lawyers Weekly on July 30.
