

FMCSA Expands and Extends Hours of Service and Other Exemptions in Response to COVID-19

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Association of Transportation Law Professionals (ATLP)

April 27, 2020

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) has expanded and extended its Emergency Declaration through May 15, 2020, or until the COVID-19 national emergency declaration from the President of the United States is revoked. The Emergency Declaration exempts motor carriers and drivers from federal regulations located at 49 CFR Parts 390-399 (which includes the hours of service requirements) when providing "direct assistance" in support of relief efforts related to COVID-19.

PRACTICE AREAS

General & Commercial Litigation

Transportation Law