

Meagher Receives 2022 Theodore W. Swift Civility Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 26, 2022

LANSING, Mich. —Foster Swift shareholder, Thomas R. Meagher, is the 2022 recipient of the Ingham County Bar Association's (ICBA) Theodore W. Swift Civility Award.

Named after and first given posthumously to the firm's name partner in 2000, this award is presented to a member of the ICBA who has "distinguished himself or herself by manifesting civility in his or her relations with the Bench, Bar, clients, and the public, while adhering to and advancing the highest principles and traditions of the legal profession."

A litigator and appellate practitioner with more than 30 years of experience, Meagher concentrates his practice on the defense of employment lawsuits, commercial litigation and appeals. This includes the defense of cases involving constitutional law, civil rights and discrimination, whistleblower, disability and licensing claims on behalf of private and municipal clients.

Meagher is the fifth attorney from Foster Swift to receive this award. The ICBA's annual awards banquet will be held at the University Club of Michigan State University on Thursday, November 10, from 6:00-9:30 pm. See registration here.
