

New ABA ethics opinion tackles use of AI in the legal profession

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michigan Lawyers Weekly

November 6, 2024

Business and cybersecurity attorney, Taylor Gast, was quoted throughout an article in Michigan Lawyers Weekly about the use of AI in the legal industry.

As artificial intelligence tools become more sophisticated and their use becomes more widespread in the legal industry, lawyers are grappling with a host of new ethical considerations, according to a recent guidance from the American Bar Association.
